

JOSE RAMOS

Government & Community Relations Vice President

Jose Ramos serves as vice president of Government and Community Relations for Wounded Warrior Project. He has been helping post-9/11 veterans as a member of the WWP team since 2018.

Prior to joining WWP, Jose served in the Office of the Secretary of Defense as the special assistant for Constituent Inquiries and as an appointed commissioner on President Bush's Commission on Care for America's Returning Wounded Warriors.

Jose's background as a combat-wounded Navy corpsman informs his current role and helps guide WWP's efforts to promote policies that support the needs of America's wounded warriors and their families. Jose served three combat tours during his Navy service while assigned to a Marine Corps infantry battalion.

Jose holds a B.A. from George Mason University and is a native of the great state of Texas.

Contact: Michael Nilson, Advocacy Communications Deputy Director, mnilson@woundedwarriorproject.org, 904.578.3437

About Wounded Warrior Project

Wounded Warrior Project is our nation's leading veterans service organization, focused on the total well-being of post-9/11 wounded, ill, or injured veterans. Our programs, advocacy, and awareness efforts help warriors thrive, provide essential lifelines to families and caregivers, and prevent veteran suicides. Learn more about Wounded Warrior Project.

