WOUNDED WARRIOR PROJECT
CODE OF CONDUCT
Revised: September 2023

Welcome Alumni, Family Support Members, and Guests!

At Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP), integrity is fundamental to everything we do. We honor the sacrifice of warriors, their families, and caregivers — and we respect the trust of those who donate and support our mission.

As a registered Alumnus or family support member, you are an extension of our values and mission. By registering and participating in WWP programs and events, you acknowledge and agree to the following expectations and standards for yourself and your guests. You also agree to follow all policies and/or procedures associated with the event and any city and/or state mandates.

By acknowledging the Code of Conduct, you and the members listed above understand and agree to abide by the following:

★ CODE OF CONDUCT ★

- I agree to be respectful and inclusive to all individuals participating, including WWP teammates, service providers, guests, and the public.

- I will refrain from using excessive profanity or any language that may be offensive or be considered insensitive. This includes my attire; I agree not to wear clothing with crude or inappropriate images and/or words.

- I will not act in any way that is discriminating, harassing, or sexually offensive. I understand that any actions or behavior of this nature, whether verbal or nonverbal, are strictly prohibited.

- I understand that using or possessing illicit controlled substances or illegal drugs is strictly prohibited. The possession and moderate consumption of alcohol is restricted to those events where expressly permitted. However, possession or consumption of alcohol is strictly prohibited at all Soldier Ride®, Project Odyssey®, and Physical Health and Wellness events.

- I understand that criminal behavior or activity is not tolerated. Additionally, prior criminal arrests or convictions can be a basis for ineligibility or unenrollment in WWP-sanctioned activities. WWP reserves the right to conduct a review of any provided information and documentation, as well as to perform a public records search.

- I understand and agree that WWP reserves the right to remove from an event any individual whose behavior and/or actions are deemed, in WWP’s sole discretion, inappropriate, derogatory, or disrespectful.

- I further agree that I am responsible for the conduct of myself and my guest(s). I understand that if my guest(s) or I violate this agreement, I may be subject to a probationary period and will be ineligible to attend WWP-sanctioned activities during such probationary period.

- I agree to provide notice of event cancellation five days before for a multiday event and/or two days before for a single-day event and virtual events.
